

CYCU Personal Data Protection Management Policy

Passed by the 908th School Administration Council on May 2, 2013

To comply with the government's "Personal Data Protection Act" and to ensure that all faculty, staff, and students at Chung Yuan Christian University (hereinafter referred to as "the University") understand the importance of personal data and privacy protection, the following personal data protection policies are established as guiding principles:

- Article 1. The University shall collect personal data only with the consent of the individual or under other legally permitted circumstances, using lawful and fair methods in appropriate settings.
- Article 2. When collecting personal data, the University must clearly explain the purpose to the individual and use the data solely within the scope of that purpose, without repurposing it for unrelated uses.
- Article 3. Unless the data subject provides written consent or permitted by law, the University shall not disclose, sell, or use personal data for purposes other than those specified at the time of collection.
- Article 4. The University must implement reasonable and appropriate security measures to prevent the risk of personal data loss, misuse, damage, alteration, or disclosure.
- Article 5. The regulations, after approval by the School Administration Council, shall be reported to the President for promulgation and implementation. Amendments shall follow the same procedure.
